

UIC Institute for the Humanities Resident Graduate Scholar 2025-2026

Application Guidelines

Proposal: The proposal narrative should be approximately 1,000 words in length. Proposals should describe the project concisely and clearly for a multi-disciplinary evaluation panel and address its relevance to current directions of research in the field. Please double-space proposals and use 12-point type.

Work Plan: Please include a chapter outline and brief statement of the dissertation progress to date. (Applicants should be in the writing stage of their work.)

Letter from DGS or Advisor: Applicants should request one brief letter either from their DGS or Advisor. The most effective letters of reference will show a detailed knowledge of the candidate's work and address directly both the likelihood the applicant will participate and benefit from Resident Fellow status.
